SHELBYVILLE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

January 2020

Next Level Resumes Wednesday, January 8, 2019

5:00-6:00 p.m. Wednesday Night Fellowship Supper
6:15-7:15 p.m. Adult Bible study, Students & Kids

Winter Bible Study: Jeremiah

Dr. Hollingsworth will lead this eight-session winter Bible Study of the prophecy of Jeremiah. In an era with more and more ambivalence and hostility toward God, our generation is not that much different from the one in which Jeremiah lived. We will look at the heart of the prophet and the need for believers today to continue to proclaim faithfully the hope which can be found with our Lord. Faithfulness to God is the central theme of this study. Adults, plan to join us at Next Level for a look at this timeless book of the Bible.

Next Level for Students

Student Ministry at Next Level is under the leadership of our Interim Student Pastor, Brad Callahan. On a weekly basis our students gather for rousing worship led by our very own student praise team led by Ashley Sweeney. Brad leads students to dive deeper into God's Word with Bible teaching. His aim is to draw students into a practical interaction with the Word of the Lord.

Next Level for Kids

Our Children's Pastor, Chad Lynn, combines games, hands on activities, and Biblical truth in ways which challenge children to make God's truth their very own. What might begin with a fun game or art activity evolves into a teachable moment where Bible verses, Bible stories and teaching about missions comes together for an experience that is sure to captivate preschoolers and school age children alike.

A word from your pastor....

My beloved Church family,

In ancient Roman religion and myth, Janus is the god of beginnings, gates, transitions, time, duality, doorways, passages, and endings. He is usually depicted as having two faces, since he looks to the future and concurrently to the past. Obviously, we do not embrace this deity, but in this season we do look to the past and dream about the future. As we look past the holiday season and all the wonderful opportunities which that entailed, the time has come to look forward now to 2020. That excites me.

As I reflect over 2019, the celebration of our church's bicentennial stands out for me. We celebrated the legacy of faith that brought us to this point. Not every era was easy. When the church building burned and another church building collapsed, the church endured and picked up the pieces to minister afresh, in spite of the interim distractions. In 2019 we faced some distractions, but our mission as a church remains the same. As your pastor, I want to see us live by faith, be known by love and be a voice of Hope, all the while making mature and equipped disciples who reflect Jesus.

Beginning February 5, 2020 we will come together as a family of the faithful. We will worship side by side in the pew, in the streets of Shelbyville, and to the ends of the earth. I pray that when the community sees us, Shelbyville will see people who are passionate about walking in the footsteps of Christ. As a team with many diverse component members, I want to see a sense of trusting relationships that will allow for and foster excellence. Churches must innovate and function with an urgency to our task, as we reach out in new ways to touch the world around us. With integrity and a positive attitude, we will, like those who have gone before us, move into the next decade with a grand trust in God. He is sovereign, and we rest in His sovereignty and plans that span beyond our scope of vision. Together, we move forward as the body of Christ.

In His grip,

Bro. Maurice

Moments That Matter

There are moments that matter as life makes its way,
While tomorrow awaits and we live for today.

Many good moments were those from our past.
Times spent with loved ones that ever will last.

Helping others will bring out our best.
Spirits are lifted and minds are at rest.

A careless moment can turn faces red
When word we have spoken should not have been said.

It is just a matter of moments, extended into years.
May your moments of joy and laughter outnumber those with tears.

Divine was the moment that blessed everyone
When God said "I love you" and sent us His Son.
