SHELBYVILLE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

March 2020

11th Annual Free Medical Clinic at SFBC

Saturday, March 21, 2020, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Shelby Touched Twice is a free clinic hosted at SFBC, working with area churches, to meet the medical, spiritual and physical needs of Shelby County residents. Last year we served 570 guests!

Schedule (Wednesday – Saturday)
March 18: Gym preparation work
March 19: Food & Clothing set up in Gym
Prayer Vigil
March 20: Worship Kick-off Service

We Need Your Help!

- Prayer—Pray for the clinic and those that will come to receive help
- Donations—Financial donations, food pantry items, toiletry items, Bibles, clean gently-used clothing
- Volunteer— There are many needs, but the biggest need is always for shepherds to guide guests through our building, and we know it best! Sign up at: shelbytouchedtwice.com/volunteer-sign-up

Services provided include medical, dental, optical, haircuts, manicures, family portraits, and we have a clothes closet and food pantry. A hot meal is provided for our guests and volunteers. To meet the needs of the many guests, we will serve and show love to those in need.

Gene & Joanna Wright Retirement Reception

Sunday, March 1, 2020

3:00 –5:00 p.m.

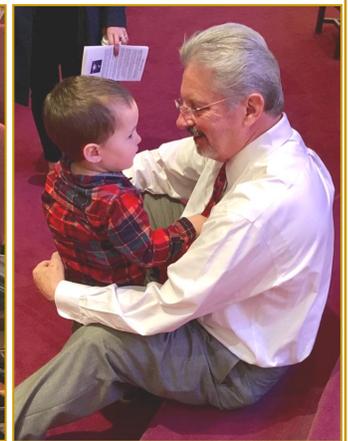

SFBC Fellowship Hall

We will hold a “come and go” Retirement Reception in honor of Gene and Joanna Wright. There will be a basket available for cards, if you would like to express your appreciation to this devoted couple.

Gene Wright, minister of music at Shelbyville First Baptist Church for 20 years, announced his retirement plans February 23. He will be in the office until March 6, 2020.

Gene has been a faithful servant and has guided the church through many changes over the years. In addition to music, his responsibility included the campus and addressing many problems and improvements. Joanna has also served SFBC as our organist for 20 years.

We hate to see them go, but wish them the very best as they begin this new chapter.

Creative Writing Group

March 15 at 4:00 p.m.

Room 302

The group is open to all ages, to help all of us to be better at expressing ourselves through the written word. We hope to encourage members to think about telling their own life stories to children and grandchildren through their own writing. We are challenged to write a short essay on a suggested topic for each bi-monthly meeting. The topic for March is “People”. Please consider joining this fun group!

Photography Group

Thursday, March 19, 7:00 p.m.

Join us monthly in Room 302 on the 3rd Thursday. The suggested topic for this month is “March Magic”. All ages & skill levels welcome.

The Church Offers Condolences to the families of

Summer Camp Fundraiser

Sunday, April 26

following the 10:30 Service

Join us for a delicious spaghetti luncheon and help send our students and kids to camp! Check out the fabulous items available in the silent auction, and don't miss the exciting and scrumptious live dessert auction! If you would like to provide a restaurant gift card, a new item or a dessert for the auction, please see Chad or Brad. If you can't make it and would like to make a donation, you can do so online or at the church office.

If you have not signed up for camp yet, see Brad or Chad. A few spots are available.

Each Monday in the Chapel 10:00-11:00 a.m.

I searched for a man among them who should build up the wall and stand in the gap before Me for the land, that I should not destroy it; but found no one. Ezekiel 22:30

Come and stand in the gap with us as we pray for our church, our community, state and country. Sweet Hour of Prayer meets each Monday from 10:00-11:00 a.m. in the Chapel.
